

REMARKS:

Claims 1-15, 18-23, 26-36, 33-37, 39-49, 51-54, 56-78, 80, 83, 85-86, 88, 89, 93-103, 105-111, 113-117, 119-120, 122, 125-133, 137, 140-147, and 150-155 are pending in this application.

Claims 24, 25, 138, 148 and 149 are cancelled by this amendment, without prejudice, to present the same or similar claims in a continuation application.

All of the claims were allowed except for the cancelled claims.

Reexamination, reconsideration, and allowance of all claims is respectfully requested.

Entry of the amendments is respectfully requested. The amendments raise no issues of new matter, and as detailed below, are solely to clarify the claims and correct errors in the claims. In particular:

1. In the previous amendment, which as requested by the examiner, was a single amendment incorporating multiple previously filed amendments, minor errors were made. These errors were in claims 46 (sentence deleted), claims 93 and 100 (word deleted).

2. Ambiguity in certain claims may be present with regard to the word "data," which was used multiple times to represent different types of data. This potential issue is resolved by adding in the word "other" in claims 1, 2, 46, 49, 51, 54, 109 and 122.

3. In certain claims use of the word "or" could possibly be improperly interpreted to exclude a device that performs both functions. As an example, in claim 1, an infringer could improperly argue that a cell phone that wirelessly connects to both the Internet and remotely located telephones is outside the scope of the claims because of the use of the word "or." In claims where there is a possibility of such an improper argument, applicant has added in "at least one of" or changed "or" to "and/or."

None of these changes require additional search or consideration since the examiner has already examined the claims with as broad as possible interpretation, and thus the added language presented does not require any additional search or consideration.

REJECTIONS UNDER 35 U.S.C. §§ 102 AND 103

The claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. §§ 102 and 103 have been cancelled, without prejudice, thereby mooted the rejections.

In view of the above remarks and amendments, it is respectfully submitted the present application is in condition for allowance. such allowance is respectfully requested.

If there are any remaining issues it is requested that the undersigned be contacted to lead the early disposal of this application.

Respectfully Submitted,
SHELDON MAK ROSE & ANDERSON
